TABLE A

Step 1 - Installing the stair

- Place stair on floor where it will be installed within the wall opening and pull down on (pivot) the stair while holding the base so it is in a full horizontal position as shown below.

- Center the stair within the opening (side to side) and move stair forward towards edge of opening so that the stair's wooden backboard is past the opening but the leveling bolts are resting inside the opening on a solid supported surface. (Be sure floor in the opening is level side to side).
- Lag screw the stair base to the floor using the four lag screws provided.
- Adjust the two leveling support bolts so they make firm contact with the floor. These will provide support to the stair as you climb.

Step 2 - Adjusting the stair

- From the floor below, use the pole provided and pull down on stair down into the position shown below, then fully extend it to the floor by hooking into the underside of the bottom tread.

- With stair extended to floor, adjust set screw under stabilizer arm so it touches bottom of arm. This provides support to keep stair straight. Figure 1.
- Slide bolt head up until it stops and tighten. This adjustment maintains stair height. Be sure to do both sides. Figure 2.
